Types of Adult Day Centers -

Adult Day Program (ADP) - Is a non-medical adult day service center that provides care to adults with physical and/or cognitive impairments who require personal care services, protective care, or assistance in activities of daily living. Services are provided on a private pay basis, sliding scale may be available.

Community Based Adult Day Program (CBAS)- These centers provide medical, rehabilitative, and social services to adults who are physically or mentally impaired. Services are provided by nurses, therapists (physical, speech and occupational), social workers and other medical personnel. Costs are covered by Medi-Cal or private pay.

Alzheimer's Day Care Resource Center (ADCRC) - These centers support the physical and psychosocial needs of persons with Alzheimer's disease or related dementias.

Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) - Assists seniors meet their health care and social service needs in the community instead of going to a nursing home or other care facility. PACE services include Adult Day Care, Home Care, healthcare, etc. To join PACE an individual must have Medicare, Medi-Cal or both.
